

Observed failure proxies

Nonexclusive labels describe observable events; they do not identify causal planning or localization failures.